

Picture special

Dancing with a Minion at Marsh Mill Square

The cast from the musical Wander set for Thornton Little Theatre this month

Marsh Mill was open for the visitors

Fun in the sun at Marsh Mill music afternoon

Families enjoyed a musical afternoon at Thornton's Marsh Mill with a wide range of performers.

Hundreds attended in the sunshine at Marsh Mill Square, with the mill open for tours and trains running on King George's Field.

Organiser Linda Adams, from the La Shack shop, said: "We had the brilliant country singing duo Millwood getting the line dancers in the audience up and us showing how it's done."

"Plus the very talented cast of the newly written 'Wander' sang songs from their new show."

"This exciting and new musical is set in the 1960s/early

'70s and is on at Thornton Little Theatre July 18 to 20.

"The children and the young at heart enjoyed a whole array of iconic Disney songs from stunning Moana and a truly Enchanted Unicorn."

"With amazing voices and adorable interaction with the children, it was simply heart-warming. And there was a visit from Ironman and a Minion."

Michele Forsyth and the team from the Melanoma Skin Cancer Charity were there with their mascot George to raise awareness and help raise funds for www.skein.org Charity.

They accepted donations for their UV bracelets and gave out free sun protection gifts.

Youngsters enjoying the singing

Listening to Moana singing

Skin cancer charity mascot George

One of the stars of the day was the Enchanted unicorn Princess

The Millwood Country Duo

Meeting the Enchanted Unicorn Princess